

Hope Corner Community Centre – Website Linking Policy

Links to our website

We welcome links to our website from external websites, but ask that the following is adhered to:

- Links to our website should not imply partnership or affiliation with, or endorsement by Hope Corner Community Centre unless otherwise agreed
- Links to our website should not mislead in any way
- Content from the Hope Corner website should not be used unless cleared with the Centre Manager or the Data Protection Officer.
- We do not permit blogs, articles, press releases or other webpage content to be recreated in full by third parties, except where special permission is given.
- When special permission is given for third parties to republish our content, they must always link back to the original content source i.e. the original page, not our homepage. They must also have the following wording: “you can read the full article from Hope Corner at (link to exact original source).” If they wish to use any other wording, it has to be agreed with the Centre Manager or Data Protection Officer.
- When referring to Hope Corner, our name is spelt in full first time of mention: Hope Corner Community Centre
- Our ‘Hope Corner’ logo can be used so long as it is clear that you are signposting to us and not affiliated with us
- Images from our website may not be used unless written permission has been granted.

We reserve the right to change our policy on linking in without explanation or notice.

Links from our website

We include links across our website that we feel are of benefit to our visitors and provide contextual information. Any link request should be made by contacting the web team.

We consider all link requests against the following criteria:

- The website / organisation directly relates to the work of Hope Corner
- The website / organisation adds value to what we offer our visitors
- The website is not an individual or personal site
- A reciprocal link is provided from the website to the Hope Corner website

We reserve the right to change our policy on linking in without explanation or notice.
